

SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION MID-SEMESTER EXAMINATION
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. According to UNESCO (1983), what is Special Education?

- A. Education provided for gifted students
- B. Education provided for students who are achieving at high levels
- C. Education provided for students who need additional support to achieve at age-appropriate levels
- D. Education provided for students who are not interested in learning

Answer: C

2. In what year did Andrew Foster introduce education for the hearing impaired in Ghana?

- A. 1936
- B. 1957
- C. 1960
- D. 1970

Answer: B

3. What should not be a reason to deny a child education?

- A. Their age
- B. Their disability
- C. Their socio-economic status
- D. Their location

Answer: B

4. What is the UNESCO requirement for teachers?

- A. To study only general education
- B. To study SPED to understand children with exceptionalities
- C. To study only special education
- D. To study only inclusive education

Answer: B

5. What do PWDS (Persons with Disabilities) face in society?

- A. Justifiable inclusion
- B. Unjustifiable discrimination
- C. Equal opportunities

D. Social acceptance

Answer: B

6. What does the term "segregation" mean in the context of education?

A. Integrating students with disabilities into regular classrooms

B. Separating students with disabilities from regular classrooms

C. Providing individualized instruction for students with disabilities

D. Mainstreaming students with disabilities into regular school

Answer: B

7. What is unique about exceptional children?

A. They have needs that can be met completely by the regular school standard curriculum

B. They have needs that cannot be met completely by the regular school standard curriculum

C. They have no special needs

D. They have the same needs as regular students

Answer: B

8. What is one of the benefits of general educators studying SPED?

A. They will only learn how to teach special children

B. They will be equipped to educate people in their communities on the needs of special children

C. They will only learn how to manage special children

D. They will not learn how to prevent disabilities

Answer: B

9. What is education considered as?

A. A privilege

B. A right

C. A luxury

D. A necessity

Answer: B

10. Who pioneered special education for the blind in Ghana in 1936?

A. Reverend Haker

B. Andrew Foster

- C. American Evangelist
- D. Ghanaian Educator

Answer: A

11. What is the effect of Rubella on the developing child?

- A. It attacks the respiratory system
- B. It attacks the central nervous system
- C. It attacks the digestive system
- D. It has no effect on the developing child

Answer: B

12. Why is attempted abortion considered a risk factor for birth defects?

- A. It can cause direct damage to the fetus
- B. It can disrupt fetal development
- C. It can increase the risk of infection
- D. All of the above

Answer: D

13. What is a handicap, according to the given definition?

- A. A physical or mental impairment
- B. An environmental restriction that limits a person's ability to perform normal roles
- C. A disease or illness that affects a person's quality of life
- D. A lack of access to education or employment opportunities

Answer: B

14. Why is it important for pregnant women to avoid hazardous work?

- A. To reduce the risk of injury to themselves
- B. To reduce the risk of harm to their developing fetus
- C. To reduce the risk of absenteeism
- D. To reduce the risk of job loss

Answer: B

15. What is the main reason why improper use of forceps during assisted delivery can cause brain damage?

- A. Infection
- B. Bleeding

- C. Excessive pressure on the skull
- D. Lack of oxygen

Answer: C

16. How can a mother's emotional state affect her fetus?

- A. Through the release of stress hormones
- B. Through changes in her diet and lifestyle
- C. Through her genetic makeup
- D. Through her socioeconomic status

Answer: A

17. Which part of the brain may be affected by excessive pressure on the skull during assisted delivery?

- A. Cerebrum
- B. Cerebellum
- C. Brainstem
- D. Any part of the brain

Answer: D

18. What is the primary cause of fetal alcohol syndrome?

- A. Maternal use of illicit drugs
- B. Maternal use of prescription medications
- C. Maternal consumption of alcohol during pregnancy
- D. Maternal smoking during pregnancy

Answer: C

19. What is a potential consequence of maternal drug abuse during pregnancy?

- A. Fetal alcohol syndrome
- B. Low birth weight
- C. Premature birth
- D. All of the above

Answer: D

20. What is considered the best childbearing age for women?

- A. 15–25
- B. 19–35

C. 25–40

D. 35–45

Answer: B

21. A student with hearing impairment has a written educational plan prepared by teachers, parents, and specialists. What is this type of plan called?

A. Inclusive Education Policy

B. Individualized Education Programme (IEP)

C. Lesson Plan

D. School Improvement Plan

Answer: B

22. Kofi worked in a dangerous environment where he was exposed to harmful chemicals and heavy machinery. After an accident at work, he suffered permanent disability. Which cause of disability does this represent?

A. Genetic factors

B. Occupational hazards

C. Prenatal infections

D. Traditional beliefs

Answer: B

23. Kojo is a student who is blind. In school, he uses a special device that allows him to read and write using raised dots that represent letters and numbers. Which assistive technology is Kojo most likely using?

A. Braille machine

B. Calculator

C. Hearing aid

D. Projector

Answer: A

24. Akosua gives birth to a child with mild intellectual disability, delayed growth, and distinctive facial features. Doctors discover that the child has an extra copy of chromosome 21. What condition is the child most likely experiencing?

A. Down syndrome

- B. Klinefelter syndrome
- C. Sickle-cell anaemia
- D. Turner syndrome

Answer: A

25. During pregnancy, Adjoa frequently consumed alcohol and smoked cigarettes. After birth, the baby showed developmental delays and learning difficulties. Which prenatal factor most likely contributed to the child's condition?

- A. Emotional state of the mother
- B. Maternal alcohol and smoking intake
- C. Maternal age
- D. Maternal infection

Answer: B

26. A teacher allows a learner with mild visual impairment to learn in the same classroom with other students and provides large-print materials. Which concept best describes this?

- A. Differentiated instruction
- B. Inclusion
- C. Integration
- D. Mainstreaming

Answer: B

27. A student with mild intellectual disability attends regular classes while assignments are modified. Which principle does this illustrate?

- A. Differentiated instruction
- B. Inclusion
- C. Least restrictive environment
- D. Special schooling

Answer: C

28. A teacher notices a preschool child has difficulty hearing and recommends assessment immediately. What concept does this represent?

- A. Early identification and intervention
- B. Inclusive education

- C. Least restrictive environment
- D. Mainstreaming

Answer: A

29. During childbirth, complications prevented enough oxygen from reaching the baby's brain. What condition does this describe?

- A. Anoxia
- B. Breech presentation
- C. Premature birth
- D. Transverse delivery

Answer: A

30. In a community, disability is believed to occur when traditional taboos are broken. What category of causes does this belief fall under?

- A. Environmental causes
- B. Genetic causes
- C. Perinatal causes
- D. Traditional causes

Answer: D

31.. A lecturer provides recorded lectures, extra exam time, and simplified instructions for a student with learning disability. What approach is this?

- A. Academic punishment
- B. Disciplinary strategy
- C. Inclusive educational support
- D. Traditional teaching method

Answer: C

32. A teacher seats a learner with hearing impairment in front and reduces noise. What strategy is this?

- A. Classroom punishment strategy
- B. Inclusive classroom management
- C. Medical treatment method
- D. Traditional teaching method

Answer: B

33.Kofi often asks others to repeat instructions and watches the teacher's lips. Which condition is likely?

- A. Hearing impairment
- B. Intellectual disability
- C. Physical disability
- D. Visual impairment

Answer: A

34.Kwame reads slowly and confuses letters like b and d. What learning disability is likely?

- A. ADHD
- B. Dyscalculia
- C. Dysgraphia
- D. Dyslexia

Answer: D

35.A teacher notices a student performs poorly in reading despite average intelligence. What should be done first?

- A. Ignore the situation
- B. Punish the student
- C. Refer the student for educational assessment
- D. Remove the student from school

Answer: C

36.Ama hears some sounds but struggles to understand speech without a hearing aid. Which term describes this?

- A. Deafness
- B. Hard of hearing
- C. Profound hearing loss
- D. Total deafness

Answer: B

37.Which ear part converts sound vibrations into electrical signals?

- A. Cochlea
- B. Eustachian tube
- C. Malleus

D. Tympanic membrane

Answer: A

38. Ama understands lessons but struggles to write and has poor handwriting. What learning disability is this?

A. Autism

B. Dyscalculia

C. Dysgraphia

D. Dyslexia

Answer: C

39. Yaw struggles with numbers and calculations but reads well. Which learning disability is this?

A. Dyscalculia

B. Dysgraphia

C. Dyslexia

D. Language impairment

Answer: A

40. Yaw lost hearing after meningitis damaged the cochlea and auditory nerves. What type of hearing loss is this?

A. Central hearing loss

B. Conductive hearing loss

C. Mixed hearing loss

D. Sensorineural hearing loss

Answer: D

41. All the following are methods used in teaching the intellectually disabled EXCEPT

A. Brainstorming

B. Demonstration

C. Repetition

D. Task analysis

Answer: A

42. Which approach best supports social interaction for a student with mild intellectual disability?

- A. Assign a permanent buddy who answers for the student
- B. Avoid group activities
- C. Use structured peer support and cooperative learning groups
- D. Keep the student seated alone

Answer: C

43. Which is a behavioural sign of visual impairment?

- A. Frequent dizziness and headache
- B. Wobbling of the eye
- C. Copying wrongly from the board
- D. Cupping of the pinna

Answer: C

44. Disability caused by a parent possessing a gene that can cause disability is called

- A. Heredity
- B. Environmental
- C. Peri-natal
- D. Post-natal

Answer: A

45. A six-month-old baby diagnosed with sensorineural hearing loss is classified as

- A. Post-lingual hearing loss
- B. Congenital hearing loss
- C. Moderate hearing loss
- D. Adventitious hearing loss

Answer: B

46. What is the primary purpose of the Snellen chart?

- A. Measure colour vision
- B. Evaluate depth perception
- C. Assess visual acuity
- D. Test peripheral vision

Answer: C

47. Which is NOT a characteristic of conductive hearing loss?

- A. Difficulty hearing loud sounds
- B. Malfunctioning of the eardrum
- C. Usually permanent condition
- D. Often treatable with surgery

Answer: A

48. Which main part of the ear contains sensory hair cells responsible for hearing?

- A. Tympanic membrane
- B. Cochlea
- C. Pinna
- D. Ossicles

Answer: B

49. What strategy best supports a student with hearing impairment during discussions?

- A. Speaking louder from the front
- B. Calling on the student less often
- C. Avoiding group work
- D. Providing written summaries or visual supports

Answer: D

50. Which statement best distinguishes low vision from complete blindness?

- A. They are identical functionally
- B. Low vision always means mobility difficulty
- C. Complete blindness means no daily difficulty
- D. Low vision indicates residual vision that can be enhanced with aids

Answer: D